ICPE Annual Meeting: The Global Home for the Science of Real-World Evidence

The International Society for Pharmacoepidemiology (ISPE) will hold their annual International Conference on Pharmacoepidemiology (ICPE) in Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada (August 23-27, 2023).

The annual ICPE is a great forum to present academic research, network with experts from around the world, meet with peers from other ISPE Student Chapters, and gain additional training in pharmacoepidemiology methods.

The University of Maryland Baltimore Student ISPE Chapter is excited to share with you the presentations at the upcoming ICPE Annual Meeting!!! See the details below.
